

#1. Nisse Foundry

1 a. Jim & Debbie Jensen

Jim & Debbie cast original or custom bronze sculpture, sundials and plaques using both sand and lost wax casting methods. The log foundry has put out bronze sculpture from mice to life-size horses.

306-468-2853

nisse@sasktel.net

1 b. Gilles Pelletier -(Victoire)

306-724-4738

Gille's specialty is caricature wood carvings, cowboys, golfers, fishermen, whimsical Christmas decor & his always popular wine stoppers

bythelakewoodandclay@gmail.com

#1Located 29 km West of Shellbrook -hwy 3 & 3 km N

#2. Honeywood Heritage Nursery

2 a. Honeywood Nursery Tours of the Nursery. Lilies available to purchase or order for fall. Food and refreshments available. Browse in the unique gift shop and take home a taste of Honeywood.

306-747-3307

www.honeywood-lilies.ca

2 b. Ruby Hannigan - Bees wax candles, honey; landscapes in oil and quilts.

2 c. Lorraine Adamson - Lorraine enjoys turning simple clay into functional items on the wheel, hand building pieces that push conventional limits and the unpredictable reaction of earth and fire that result.

747-2704

ladamson@skyvelocity.ca

2 d. Art Jones - Wood turning and wood carving. Art is a long term member of the Sask Wood Workers Guild.

2 e. Evergreen Woodturning - Doug Peake -(Waldheim) Working with West Coast wood, salvaged from old logging wastes, Doug Peake creates unique bowls and plates and gift ware. Doug has been turning wood for 18 years.

dspeake@sasktel.net

306-945-4902

Shirley Cromarty-(Big River)

306-469-4952

In 1970 Shirley began quilting and has developed into an established fabric artist. She now teaches quilting, and sells her own line of hand dyed fabrics. She makes unique, individual quilts.

kscromarty@gmail.com

#2Located 4 miles South and 1 mile West of Parkside

Do you know how to clean glass with rhubarb?

Do you know how to fire pottery with buffalo chips?

Do you know how to blow glass?

Do you know how to prepare casts for bronze?

Do you know how to prepare birchbark for art work?

Come to our tour and find out!

#3. Hand Blown Glass & Design

3 a. Ron Anderson - Come and learn how to make a glass paperweight at 2200 F. Maybe you will be picked to help.

306-747-3063

hotglassron@hotmail.com

3 b. Sherry Randall -(Iroquois Lake) 306-427-4587

Living at Iroquois Lake, Sherry resumed her passion for oil painting, receiving inspiration from her flower garden and surrounding landscape.

3 c. Henriette Schultz -(Big River) 306-724-4731

Henriette started sketching and moved on to quilting, specializing in baby quilts. She has also become known for her unique, exceptional and personalized cross stitch portraits.

#3Located 9.5 km South on the Wingard Ferry Road

#4. Riverview Arts

4 a. Pat Grayston, BA, BEd, BFA Great Distinction Pat has an intaglio press, both for her hand-pulled prints and woodcuts. Pat produces distinctive horse-hair and pit fired pottery as well as teapots and other functional ware.

306-747-7221

www.riverviewarts.com

4 b. Anna Wallbillig (North Battleford) 306-937-7540

By using decorative techniques of fabric painting, appliqué, thread painting, embroidery and artfully altered fabric and combining different colors and textures of fabric Anna makes each article of clothing unique.

4 c. Madelaine Walker (Saskatoon) 306-955-8059

Fibreline - With 35 yrs of fiber craft, Madelaine excelled in the SIAST Applied Arts Weaving Program. She uses natural fibers to weave, currently spinning flax into linen thread and weaving it.

tl.walk@sasktel.net

4 d. Richard Stieb (Prince Albert) 306-763-7937

Richard uses Whitetail deer antler (referred to as sheds) to carve distinctive deer antler jewelry. His jewelry has a natural and unique appearance as he creates his own carving designs and techniques.

4 e. Dolores Miller (La Ronge) northernlights@sasktel.net

The reflectivity, fluidity and clarity of color of glass are all qualities of a beautiful northern day. Each piece of jewelry or stained glass panel we create reflects our appreciation of the magnificent country we live in.

4 f. Donna McKeand Smith - (Spruce Home)

Donna is known primarily for landscape and still life drawings in charcoal, pencil and ink. She finds the textural quality of birchbark an intriguing surface for her ink drawings.

306-764-7571

#4Located 3 km North of Shellbrook on Highway 55

#5. R&C Dreamworks

Russ & Carol Hofferd

- not participating this year.

306-747-2348

#6. Art Works by Estelle

Estelle Dows

- not participating this year.

306-747-3002

#7. Pottery by Sylvia

7 a. Sylvia Jones

sylviajones14@yahoo.com

Sylvia took her training through the U of S. Her functional and handcrafted items feature her well known pussy willow design as well as a variety of glazing techniques. She has been a potter for 20 years.

#7Located at 507, 1st Ave East, Shellbrook

#8. Traditional Fine Crafts

8 a. Betty Fiddler - 306-747-5877

-not participating this year.

Friday, June 1st - 8pm

Hootenanny on the Hill

Kerri English sets the pace with lively tunes played on her violin. Kerri will be bringing other talented musicians with her, including Gerald Lanes. As they play the flames from the pottery pit fire leap and dance.

#4 Riverview Arts

3 km North, hwy 55.

Sunday, June 3rd - 5pm

Join in the excitement as the pit fired pottery is dug out out of the coals and ashes.

Places to Eat

Honeywood Heritage Nursery - Site #2

Neighbourhood Restaurant - #133 Main Street

Red Lion - #2 Main Street

Shellbrook Restaurant - #18 Main Street

Subway - Highway 3 & 55 (Esso)

Your Break Billiards - 2131 Service Rd. East